

TORAH STUDY

We are continuing a new year of Torah study with Rabbi Emily enhancing the learning of our wonderful group. We would like to invite you to join us as we study the Torah to bring its insights into our daily lives while learning more about our world and creating a sense of community. Our congenial group welcomes new attendees as well as those who attended last year's sessions. Come for one session or more frequently.

Study is informal. There is no homework!

Here's what you don't need:

- Prior experience in Torah study
 - Hebrew language skills
- Commitment to attend all the sessions

Here's what you do need:

- Curiosity to explore the lessons of our Torah text
- Motivation to bring the lessons of Torah to our daily lives
- A desire to learn from each other and from our texts.

Reibman Center Conference Room Tuesdays from 5-6pm

(usually the 2nd & 4th Tuesdays of the month)

On October 23rd we will discuss what events occurred after Noah's flood. What should we do when the waters recede?

On October 30th we will discuss the tangled relationships of our patriarchs and matriarchs and what they say about our own families.

Upcoming Dates:

November 13th

November 27th

December 11th

Interested? Questions? We would like to hear from you.
